Art can start conversations; it can bring subjects into the public sphere, expose abuses and point towards new worlds. It touches people in a deeper and more affecting way than academic and political discourse and it moves us to tears, to laughter and to action.

Excerpt from a speech by Deeyah Khan to the United Nations Human Rights Council in March 2014

Between

Art / Development cooperation / Sustainable development

- 4 major challenges for mountain regions :
 - Climate change
 - Water resource
 - Migration
 - Food security
- Photography as a mean of expression
- Artists from South or East welcomed in residence
- Exhibitions, meetings and dialog with the public
